STATEMENT

March 27, 2020
For Immediate Release

People being asked to self-isolate before travelling to Labrador Inuit Settlement Area

In an effort to control the spread of COVID-19, the Nunatsiavut Government is asking individuals to self-isolate for at least 14 days before travelling from Happy Valley-Goose Bay to any of the five Labrador Inuit communities.

Effective immediately, individuals whose travel costs are covered by the Nunatsiavut Government, including students and staff, will be required to self-isolate in Happy Valley-Goose Bay for 14 days before entering the Labrador Inuit Settlement Area. Arrangements will be made to ensure accommodations are provided to students and staff that are required to self-isolate.
