Location:

Nunatsiavut/ HVGB

Department:

Health & Social Development

Term:

Temporary Full-Time

Closing Date:

June 29, 2022

Responsibilities:

- Foster and initiate relationships with justice service providers for the purposes of collaboration and working toward common education/training goals.
- Hold consultations with current and former justice/criminal justice involved individuals, justice service providers and other key stakeholders to gain an understanding of the education and training needs and gaps within mainstream justice systems.
- Identify and engage in addressing 'upstream' issues related to gaps in mainstream justice systems/services through education and awareness initiatives.
- Work as part of the justice services team, to continuously explore best practices and solutions to the education needs of mainstream justice service providers in order to close the service gap for Inuit involved in the justice system.
- Develop/co-develop a series of education and training sessions geared toward the various mainstream justice services sectors (i.e. For corrections staff, court staff, legal counsel, probations, parole, etc.).
- Facilitate and deliver trainings as requested or where needs have been identified to those working in mainstream justice systems.
- Engage in consultation and advocacy, as it relates to the population our current justice team serves.
- Other related duties as required

Qualifications:

- Bachelor degree in a related field or a combination of equivalent training/education and experience.
- 2-3 years of experience in the area of justice and criminal justice.
- Experience with northern Inuit and/or Indigenous communities, with an understanding of Intergenerational Trauma and how it relates to current representation of Indigenous peoples in the justice system.
- Ability to travel as required.
