About the project:

This is a pilot project initiative by Parks Canada in partnership with the Nunatsiavut Government. The goal of the project is to enable Nunavik and Nunatsiavut Inuit Beneficiaries to reconnect with their homeland and provide opportunities to understand how to make the park a living, vibrant Inuit homeland that is meaningful in the present and the future. The following are specific to the project:

- intended to provide funding for 10 Beneficiaries (five Nunatsiavut, five Nunavik) to explore the park and connect at the Torngat Mountains Base Camp and Research Station during its operational season for a one-week period;
- ideally the participants would have a strong connection and interest to their homeland and whose insights will enhance future programming and discussions.

Family Application:

Looking for a family application of five people. The family make-up can be from grandparents, sister, cousin, father, uncle, aunt etc.

Date of Inuit Connection and access to the Torngat Mountains National Park Pilot Project:

The program dates are for one week July 23 - 30, 2022.

Applicants:

The pilot program welcomes applications from each of five Nunatsiavut's constituencies as follows:

- Nain;
- Hopedale;
- Makkovik;
- Postville; and
- Rigolet.

Beneficiaries will be selected on the merit of their applications. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
